

What's New IN PUERTO RICO?

Hurricane Fiona made landfall in Puerto Rico in September, but despite the recent events, the tourism industry is experiencing a steady recovery, and exciting local projects, initiatives, and businesses are opening. Here's your monthly update on new developments on the Island. Please visit this link to see the latest findings from September and October 2022.

NORTH & METRO REGION

A summary of the new attractions and restaurants that have been announced in the North and Metro region of the Island. Included are a 1960's — inspired gin cocktail bar, a bar and art gallery, and new and exciting tour operators in the Old San Juan region.
